"Creation has such a bounty of beauty that never ceases to delight. We find beauty everywhere in nature." - Sue Quist

The Colors of Autumn – God's Handiwork

by Sue Quist, Director of Music & Fine Arts

I love fall and everything about it — colorful leaves dancing about, crisp chilly air, and the delightful colors of autumn. I find myself pausing and admiring the beauty of nature a lot during this, my favorite time of the year.

Creation has such a bounty of beauty that never ceases to delight. Have you ever gazed at a tree as a work of art? Admiring the twists and turns of its branches and the smell of cedar or pine? We find beauty everywhere in nature.

Isn't it wonderful how God created the lush green grass, the varying hues of yellow fall leaves, and the deep blue sky above.

God as the master artist, has created the "color scheme of creation." The Bible tells us that God is perfect in knowledge (Job 37:16), so we should not be surprised that the elements and laws of nature work together to produce a beautiful color scheme.

A favorite hymn of mine references the beauty of the earth. Classical scholar Folliot Pierpont (1835-1917) returned to his hometown of Bath, England, and admired the beauty of the countryside in the late spring of his 29th year. He was so moved by how beautiful his hometown was, that he was inspired to write the lyrics to the famous hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth."

Each stanza thanks God for a different kind of beauty. In its original form it was a communion hymn of eight stanzas. Each verse ending with "Christ our God, to thee we raise, this our sacrifice of praise," which was referencing Hebrews 13:15, "Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise — the fruit of lips that openly profess his name."

Here is the 1st verse of the hymn. I hope you hum this pretty tune as you gaze outside at God's beautiful handiwork.

*For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Christ, our God, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

Consecrated Stewards

October 30th marks the beginning of a four-week congregational-wide sermon series and Bible study focus. It is entitled Consecrated Stewards. What does it mean to consecrate something? It simply means to set it apart, to make it sacred or holy. God sets Christ-followers apart for His holy purposes. The time, the abilities, and the resources that God entrusts to us are to be set apart and put to use for His glory and for the building of His kingdom here on earth as it is in heaven.

As we look to the year-in-ministry ahead, we pause to reflect on God's Word and to consider how He can use us individually and corporately as congregation to empower gospel mission and ministry through Cross View. In an effort to equip you as a Consecrated Steward, a number of opportunities and activities will unfold in the coming weeks. Please mark them on your calendars now.

- Oct. 30–Nov. 20: Sunday morning Bible classes for children, youth, and adults
- A prayer vigil in November
- An online tool to register your abilities, talents, and interests
- Nov. 20: Commitment Sunday during our morning worship
- Nov. 23: Family-friendly Thanksgiving Eve worship with Pie Fest fellowship to follow

Let us begin to pray even now that each Christ-follower at Cross View, from the youngest child to the eldest adult, is equipped as a Consecrated Steward in the year ahead. Be on the lookout for more details on upcoming events connected to Consecrated Stewards in the November Clarion, CV Connect, and other communications!

CLASS OVERVIEWS 3 classes each lasting 9 weeks

This is My Story, This is My Song: Insights From Exodus

September 15– November 10

What a story! Shiphrah and Puah, Moses and Miriam, Aaron and Jethro—and don't forget the Red Sea and a mountain called Sinai! This story, fulfilled and completed in Jesus Christ, is your story as well. In nine sessions, participants will review it and learn again how to sing it.

Presenter — Dr. Reed Lessing, Professor of Theology and Ministry, Concordia University, St. Paul, MN

Stories for Witness

December 1 – February 9

(No classes on December 22 & 29)

Participants will discover the witness value of stories. They will review the great sacred story arcing over every disciple's life and find themselves in the stories Jesus tells in the gospels. They will also consider their own stories for witness. The point of witness is just where the Christ story, the story of another, and my own story intersect. To emphasize the visual nature of Jesus' stories, art will be used extensively.

Presenter — Dr. Dean Nadasdy, President Emeritus, MN South District, LCMS

The Story in Our Communities

February 23 – April 27 (No class on April 6)

Jeremiah 29:7 says, "Seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the Lord for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper." Throughout God's Word, churches and communities are linked. One important key to connecting with your community is growing partnerships. This course will expose participants to Biblical insights and ministry leaders using best practices to inspire God's people to be in, and for, the community where they are located.

Presenters — Presenters – Dr. William Utech, Mission Developer, and Dr. Philip Johnson, Assistant to the President, Mission Formation – MN South District, LCMS

CLSD is an incredible offering for our congregation to grow as disciples who make disciples. Let's all take advantage of it! In addition, let's be a light to our community near and far as each of us pass on the details of this opportunity to our networks of friends and churches.

Get more information and register for Community Light at www.crossview.net/communitylight (onsite space is limited) or via email at CLSD@crossview.net.

GOD CONNECTS

SUNDAY MORNINGS, 9:30–10:30 AM
ROOMS 209–210

As we seek to be equipped to go into the world as disciples of Jesus, a solid refresher on the basics of Christian faith is in order for two reasons. First, knowing the faith strengthens us personally in our walk with God and in our understanding of his love for us and for the world. Second, growing in our understanding of the faith equips us to have meaningful conversations and dialogues with others as we seek to share Christ. Join us on Sunday mornings for part one of "God Connects." In this six-week series, we will tackle questions like: "Why Jesus?" "Why the Bible?" and "Who is the Holy Spirit?" The course will equip you to share your learnings as well as access and share free user-friendly resources with others. Classes begin September 18 at 9:30 AM. Sign up here on Cross View Connect.

STEPHEN MINISTRY CORNER

Our congregation's Stephen Ministry equips laypeople to provide one-to-one Christian care to people in our congregation and community who are experiencing difficulties in their lives. Stephen Ministry is a confidential ministry. The identity of those receiving care and everything they discuss with a Stephen Minister remain private.

A Stephen Minister is...

- A child of God who walks beside someone who is hurting.
- A congregation member who is carefully selected to serve in this role because of his or her caregiving gifts.
- A layperson with 50 hours of training in providing high-quality, distinctively Christian care.
- A caring Christian friend who listens, cares, prays, supports, and encourages.
- Someone who meets faithfully each week with his or her care receiver for as long as there's a need.

If you need a Stephen Minister or are interested in becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact one of Cross View's pastors.

HOW TO SEE GOD IN CREATION ACTIVITIES.

God's Creation Scavenger Hunt

Use this game to help kids explore the elements of God's creation. You'll need:

- Bible
- Paper
- Crayons
- 1 Egg Carton per Child

1. Beforehand, cut pieces of paper to fit on top of the egg cartons. Glue a piece to the top of each egg carton and draw lines to represent each of the sections in the carton.
2. Say: "Today we're going on a scavenger hunt to learn about God's creation."
3. Read Genesis 1:1-5. Say: "Find something in nature that helps you think about God's first day of creation."
4. Encourage kids to be creative — there's not a "right" item that they should choose.
5. Have children place the item in the top left section of the egg carton. Have them write "Day 1" and draw a picture on the corresponding section of the paper on top of the carton.
6. Invite children to share what they collected and why they chose those items.
7. Continue the same process as you go through each of the other days of creation from Genesis 1:1 to 2:4. Have children fill each of the other sections of the egg carton with other things God created. They don't have to be items from nature—the point is to help them understand that God created everything. Invite children to discuss the various items they collected.

Take Care

Use this simple service project idea to practice being good stewards of God's creation. You'll need:

- Bible
- Trash Bags

- Disposable Gloves
- Hand Sanitizer

- 1, Beforehand, choose a safe area where you can take children that has either a lot of litter or needs basic cleaning up, such as a park or empty lot.
- 2, Say: "In Genesis 1:26, the Bible says that God put us in charge of the earth and that we're to take care of it."
3. Read aloud Genesis 2:15. Taking care of God's creation is a responsibility but doing so also means we can live in a clean, safe place.
4. Ask: "What are ways you take care of the things God created?" "What difference does it make if we take care of God's creation?"
5. Say: "Working with others to love and take care of God's creation is a privilege." Explain that you'll all be cleaning up an area of God's creation. Take the children to the area you chose ahead of time. Encourage a fun environment by leading children to sing their favorite tunes as you work. You can also add a game element by having children try to fill their bags.
6. Ask: "What did you like or not like about taking care of God's creation?" "Whether it was all fun or hard work, why do you want to take care of God's creation in the future?"

OCTOBER FAITH STEPPING STONES CELEBRATIONS

Sunday, October 2nd Celebration of Journey Stepping Stone (6th graders)

In this faith Stepping Stone, classes 9/18 and 9/25, the child and parent examine the scriptures and their identity in Christ as they approach the new experience of middle school. This year we're excited to be adding Brad Ost and Connie Landreville as additional teachers!

Treats on Sunday Mornings

Café Cross View is back in a new format! In September and October, we will be offering YoYo Donut holes, individually wrapped treats, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate. The suggested donation per item is $1; this defrays the cost of treats, coffee, and supplies.

For Café Cross View to continue beyond October, we encourage all individuals, families and church groups to consider hosting a Sunday in Café Cross View. Sign up at the Event Registration desk next to the church office or at www.crossview.net/resources. An information sheet with details is located at the Event Registration desk. Training will be provided. Questions? Contact Carol Niemira at (952) 334-0705 or Renee Kirchner in the church office (952) 941-1094.

Does Your MAT Need to Use the Cross View Office Printer?

All Ministry Action Teams are asked to call the church office to schedule copier/printer use needed for any event materials, bulletin inserts, etc. well in advance. This includes arranging with the administrative assistant to print materials for you, and also if you have the access to print them directly to the office printer on your own. The printer is particularly busy on Thursdays preparing Sunday service materials, so avoid that day to print.

Volunteers Needed for Every Meal

Every Meal is a ministry that helps alleviate hunger over the weekend. Cross View helps with this ministry at Creek Valley Elementary. We are looking for several volunteers to help put the free food bags into students' lockers. Please contact Amy Collins (amycollins68@icloud.com or 612-889-3936) if you are able to help on a rotating basis.

Ready!

September 11 marked the kickoff of the 2022-2023 year in ministry. Our fall kickoff was filled with energy and excitement. The morning began with our traditional worship service. During our education hour, children, adults, and youth gathered for our ministry huddle. Afterwards, the children and youth briefly met with their teachers. Then we all gathered at Café Cross View for YoYo Donuts and coffee. The morning concluded with the kickoff of a refresh on our 10:45 AM contemporary service. All in all, it was a morning of celebration! Are you READY for the year ahead? We hope that you are. We pray that you will engage in the many opportunities and events in the year ahead that will equip you for your Christian race. Ready...Set...Go...!

Cross View Churchwide Picnic

Everyone had a such a great time hanging out together on Sunday, September 18, at Riley Lake Park and enjoyed a wonderful fall day with church family and friends. Games included tug of war, marshmallow races, horseshoes, cards and board games under the large pavilion, and a lot of yard games. It was nice seeing all the ages of church members from the youngest to the oldest fellowshiping together! Can't wait to do it again next year!
